Student Code of Conduct

- Respect for teachers, staff, parents, and other students is expected at all times.
- Honoring language will be used. Name-calling, profanity and/or inappropriate actions or bullying will not be tolerated.
- Students’ conduct will be respectful of property, and therefore, any damage done to property will be replaced or repaired by the student.
- Student will stay on-site in CYT designated areas at all times.
- CYT expects purity of self in relationships with others and one’s own body; therefore, drugs, alcohol or smoking are strictly prohibited. Overt physical contact between students is inappropriate at CYT activities.
- Maintain appropriate content and images on any and all social media (Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, Blogs, etc.) remembering that you are representing CYT and are a role model for other students and should exhibit values based on Biblical principals.
- Students who are cast in a production are required to attend their CYT classes for the entire 10-week session, including Showcase on the last day of class.
- CYT believes our gifts, talents, and passions come from God, so we expect our CYT students to always do their best as this is honoring to our Creator.

Student Dress Code:
- CYT expects students to dress modestly and appropriately, in a way that promotes a healthy environment and eliminates distractions.
- Overly tight or revealing clothing is not acceptable.
- Midriffs must be covered, even when arms are raised or when seated.
- Undergarments are not to be visible or exposed.
- I understand that violations of this code of conduct may affect current and/or future participation in any or all CYT programs.
